Residential on 0.13 Acres

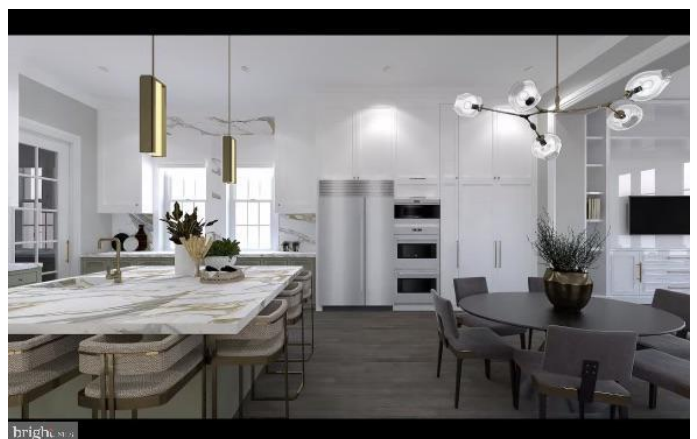

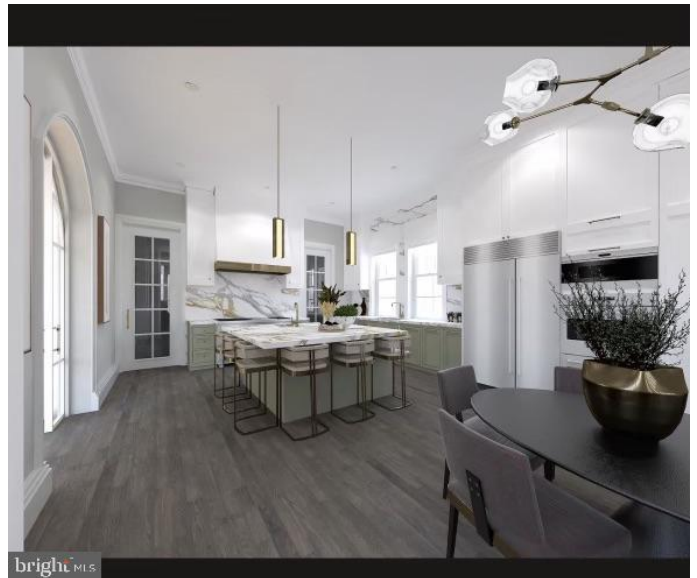

GEORGETOWN, Washington, DC

Step into a piece of history with this iconic building, originally built in 1886 and steeped in the rich heritage of Georgetown. This Bracketed Italianate residence was built by DC's first Mayor, Henry Cooke. Known for its historic significance and architectural grandeur, this property stands as a testament to timeless design and craftsmanship. Currently undergoing a major upgrade and meticulous restoration from top to bottom, this historic gem is being transformed while preserving its authentic charm. The home is now a blank canvas, awaiting the final stages of finishing to bring your vision to life. Whether you're looking to create a luxurious residence or a unique living space, this property offers endless possibilities. With 13 foot ceilings, 6 bedrooms, 6.5 baths, double parlor, a family room, sunroom, gym / golf simulator, and media rooms, this home is designed to accommodate the most discerning tastes. The property also features a dramatic curved staircase, a detached garage, an expansive driveway and cupola. Don't miss the chance to own a piece of Georgetown's storied past while shaping its future.
