Property Features:

Historic Charm Meets Modern Luxury: Step inside the main residence where classic millwork and hardwood floors create an inviting atmosphere. With six fireplaces dotting the space, this home seamlessly integrates historic elegance with a contemporary family area. The sunlit Great Room offers breathtaking views, perfect for both relaxation and entertainment.

Chef's Kitchen: Culinary enthusiasts will appreciate the chef's kitchen, which balances old-world charm with state-of-the-art amenities. It beautifully centers around a preserved 1743 structure, blending tradition with modern functionality.

Rustic Appeal: A restored mill adds a unique rustic touch, while a renovated guest cottage provides a cozy retreat for visitors or potential rental income.

Expansive Outdoor Amenities: Enjoy luxurious outdoor living with a tennis court, stable barn, and a 12-car garage surrounded by lush woodlands. A serene pond on the property can be transformed into a sparkling swimming pool, perfect for summer gatherings.

Grounds and Landscaping: The enchanting landscaping enhances the property's natural beauty, while every detail, from the re-pointed mill to the meticulously maintained gardens, speaks to the estate's storied past.

Historical Significance:

- This estate is recognized on the National Historic Registry and the Maryland Register of Historic Places, emphasizing its cultural importance.
- It is a designated site on the National Underground Railroad Network to Freedom, being the birthplace of Margaret Morgan and the only privately held site in Harford County related to this historic movement.
- While the property holds significant historical value, it is not on the *Harford County

Register of Historic Places, allowing for flexibility in renovations without needing approval, though owners may seek this designation for access to tax breaks and grants for preservation efforts.

Additional Information:

Conservation Easement: Detailed information regarding conservation easement, Maryland Environmental Trust involvement, tax benefits, and a comprehensive forest management plan is available for interested buyers.

Hunting Lease: The property currently has a lease agreement with the Chesapeake Area Bowhunters, which can be terminated if desired or transferred to the new owners with a possible prorated reimbursement.

Well Inspection: A well inspection was completed to document the well on record with Harford County, following renovations of the cottage between 2021-2023.
