Charming Stone Farmhouse on 18.62 Acres
with Horse Barn and Fenced Pastures

Step into history with this charming stone farmhouse, affectionately known for its distinctive three front doors. Boasting four spacious bedrooms, three full bathrooms, and one half bath, this home offers both character and modern amenities. Recently painted throughout, the home features a beautiful spiral staircase, a balcony off the main bedroom, and a solarium that fills the space with natural light. Youâ€™ll appreciate the refinished hardwood floors, crown molding, and ample closet space that give the home a refined yet welcoming feel.

Nestled on 18.62 picturesque acres, this property is a true gem for horse lovers. The equestrian setup includes a well-appointed horse barn with six stalls, a tack room with hot and cold water, and an electric storage area for all your gear. The fully fenced pastures provide plenty of space for horses to roam, and thereâ€™s a stream running through the property to complete the serene setting.

Additionally, a tenant house with two bedrooms and one bathroom offers both privacy and potential for extra income or guests. Whether used for rental income or as a guest retreat, the tenant house provides ample storage space and a cozy living environment.

The property also includes a 1500 square-foot insulated metal pole building, perfect for storage or additional workspace, as well as an inground saltwater pool for relaxation. For those who enjoy outdoor activities, there are walking trails through the woods, allowing you to enjoy the natural beauty of the land.

With its rare combination of historic charm, equestrian facilities, and income potential, this property offers endless possibilities.

Please note: Showings are by appointment only; please do not drive up the driveway without one. Thank you!
